ROSA PARKS
Feb. 4, 1913 - Oct. 24, 2005
Civil rights activist

- Rosa Parks' refusal to give up her seat to a white man on a bus helped start the civil rights movement.
- Her subsequent arrest resulted in a 381-day bus boycott in Montgomery, Ala., led by Martin Luther King Jr.
- Later worked as a secretary for U.S. Rep. John Conyers.
- Awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom and the Congressional Gold Medal.
